Hi! My name is Jan Tincher and I believe God does wonderful work through His Messengers, the Angels. If you would like to take a walk through the Angel Garden, go here: <http://www.angelsarewithus.com/angelgarden.htm>

Some people are drawn to the Angels because they have lost sight of God -- therefore, God reaches out to His people through His Angels. In my writings, for those of you who can, please read God into everything the Angels do. For those of you who can't, please feel the love and forgiveness the Angels provide us from God.

It's not a coincidence that your Angel Guide led you here. Know that your Angels are here to help you and that they have been sent by God.

Look around for Angel footprints.

Look around for Angel footprints. You'll find them. If you don't, I will be happy to show you where and how to look. If you would like to read articles I've written about Angels, go here: <http://www.angelsarewithus.com/articles.htm>

Monday:

Make an Angelic Arc between you and your Angels.

Imagine standing and facing your Angels. Now, a light beams in an arc from your forehead to theirs. Feel the warmth as their love travels to you through that arc. Bask in their love. Carry it with you for the rest of the day. ^j^

Tuesday:

Be aware of your Angels' presence.

Set your alarm for every hour on the hour. At each hour, thank your angels for their guidance and take time to be with them. Sit in a chair and visualize them, maybe sitting in a chair across from you, talking to you. By the time the day is over, you should sense their presence as they respond to your attention. ^j^

Wednesday:

Say hello to your Angels, then list three acts of kindness you are randomly going to do today. When you do them, acknowledge the act with a grin and say, "My Angel made me do it!" ^j^

Thursday:

Feel your Angel's presence. Clothe your body in a blanket of love. Think of words that describe love to you. Allow an Angel to whisper them in your ear. Angels love bringing words of goodness and love to you. ^j^

Friday:

Feel your Angel's love.

Place your hand gently over your heart. Listen and feel each beat. Softly with your finger, trace the symbol of infinity (for those of you who don't know, it's the number 8 sideways). As you trace this symbol, fill it with angelic love. Know the love you send out will always return, and that it will return tenfold. ^j^

Saturday:

Make an Angel gesture to let the Angels know you are willing to communicate with them.

Bring your hands to your chest in a prayer position. Open your hands as wide as your shoulders, like an angel would spread her wings. Angels will happily respond. ^j^

Sunday:

Feel your Angel's love.

Visually place a pinkish white light around you. Move with peace, knowing an Angel will appear when the heart and mind are ready. Know, too, that it only takes a word, a feeling or a touch for you to experience the presence of an Angel. Look for them everywhere. ^j^
